

HALDIA LAW COLLEGE

Core Values

➤ Academic Excellence

The College devotes serious efforts to maintain unbending quality and uppermost quality standard in its teaching, learning, and research. The Haldia Law College would certainly facilitate in diffusing the insights and perception of those new ideas by keeping in consideration the modern law schooling approach as well as necessary requirements of contemporary legal skills.

➤ Integrity, Ethics and Mutual Trust

The College endorses the utmost ethical values, uprightness and professionalism as well as untiring pledge to the scholastic liberty, transparency and accountability. The academic endeavour of the College cultivates the fundamental cultural ethics of India --- Integrity, Mutual Respect, Safety and Credibility and, most importantly, Equality.

➤ Expand Horizons of Knowledge

The teaching methodology of the College offers to endure rigor, but, at the same time, it seems to have legitimate endeavor to propagate with student-genial approach.. The College does not thrust only on the conventional legal cram, but tries to embrace the modern multidisciplinary as well as fact-based frame of teaching and research to achieve the scholastic pedagogic values.

➤ Egalitarian Governance

The decision making process of the College sets on mutual exchange of ideas and views that would encourage collective decision-making with the help open information set and varied involvement of all stake holders.

➤ Social Responsibility

The College genuinely ensures to undertake and expose the transformations of society and associated legal consequences which would indoctrinate the values of uprightness, competence including social responsibility and commitment in the minds of budding legal professionals of the College. The College also cuddles the approach of environment protection which would sustain the livelihood and development of human society for long.

➤ Service

The College gives the passage to serve the institute in a assorted, friendly and professional manner by which the employees would develop their careers to nourish their needs and, at the same time, would persuade convention of engagement and social responsibility through the passage of union between occupation, excellence, and professional expansion.

